MARSE ABE WINNER AGAIN.

ADDS THE JUVENILE STAKES TO HIS LONG LIST OF VICTORIES.

Pedro Defeats Al Muller and Glorifier-Steeplechas to Moongold-Ralbert Takes a Race

Lyric Handicap Weights.

New Orleans, La., March 25 .- L. A. Cella's Yan kee—Halo colt, Marse Abe, proved conclusively this afternoon that he is the best youngster shown here this winter by shouldering 123 pounds and defeating the pick of the younger brigade in the Juvenile Stakes at five furlongs. Brougham, which of late has been showing consistency, was a close second and Yankee Daughter third. For some unaccount able reason Marse Abe was a fast receding favorite in the speculation, there being a strong inclination to bet all around him, the Ellison entry, consisting of Sister Inez and Yankee Daughter, and the Corrigan pair, Anne McGee and Elizabeth Harwood, being the fancied ones. When it came to the running neither of these pairs threatened the winner seriously. He went into the lead from the start and under a hustling ride stayed there, although his loafing tactics gave some of his backers an anxious ent when Brougham challenged gamely in the final sixteenth. The poor showing of Elizabeth Harwood was accounted for partially by her stumbling soon after the start, which relegated her to the rear in the first furlong.

The condensed history of the Juvenile Stakes is

The slowly drying out track was held accountable for numerous form somersaults that were in evidence during the afternoon. The most flagrant one came closing race when John McBride, which had been trailing distantly in his last half-dozen races, showed a sudden return to speed and won with the utmost ease over the favorite, Creel.

J. H. McCormick and his connections are reported to have sustained one of the biggest betting losses of the season when Glorifier failed to win the fifth race, for which he was an overwhelming favorite Al Muller set a fast pace for three-quarters, only to succumb in the last furlong to Pedro, which won in the easiest kind of manner. Al Muller lasted long enough to beat Glorifier for second place.

The steeplechase went to Moongold, supported by all the sharps. His victory was mainly due to the good ride he received from Archibald, as Impertinence was clearly the best, but lost enough ground at all the jumps to have insured his victory by a big margin. Ralbert, which E. Corrigan recently claimed from A. C. Bellew, won his first purse for his new owner when he finished in front in the third race.

Merrick again showed himself a useful plater

Hart Dernham, who is acting as secretary of the Suburban Racing Association, now conducting Sunday racing, announced his appointment as secre tary and manager of the Houston, Texas, meeting, which will begin May 4 and continue until May 22. The weights for the Lyric Handican, the last of the stake races to be run at City Park this season, were announced this afternoon. The distance to be run is a mile and a half, the added money $1,000 and the stake closed with sixty-one nominations. According to the present outlook there should be ten or twelve starters of decidedly good class. Glorifier, which has the top impost of 120 pounds, is regarded as a certain starter. Old Honesty up 114, and then come Temaceo and John Carroll ith 112 each, while Good Luck, which has been showing particularly well of late, will carry 107. nfour has 106, Yankee Girl 105, Tileing 103, Agile 100, Plantland 97, Donna and Monsignor following with the same modest impost.

WILLIAM WALKER REDUCES HIS STABLE.

William Walker sold fourteen horses in the paddock at Oakland Tuesday at auction. They brought a total of $7.575. The only horses Walker reserved were Stanley Fay, Centre Shot, Edwin Gum, Earl Rogers and Green Goods, which he will race on the metropolitan tracks next summer. W. P. Magrane conducted the sale and the best horses sold Henry O., Catherine F., Monaco Maid, Confessor

Low Class Horses Race, but Furnish Exciting Contests and Game Finishes.

Washington, D. C., March 25.—Several very interesting races came out of the indifferent program arranged for today, the feature being the steeplechase in which the J. W. Colt entry, Percentage and Penarris finished one-two in easy fashion. Percentage led almost from start to finish and, jumping faultlessly, showed that he had been well trained for meeting. Penarris, for a green jumper, is promising. He will undoubtedly make a good horse the field for he has plenty of speed and showed today that jumping is his forte.

Prowler ran away while on his way to the post for the first race, making the circuit of the track speed and ran in last position throughat top The public had backed the horse almost to the exclusion of everything else and the victory of Nanno was pleasing to the perambulators.

The Aftongreen Stud of General W. T. Town s furnished the winner of the two-year-old race Bonnie Kelso ran green, but finished fast and is probably a good one.

The withdrawal from the third race of Animus and Lally, which were carded to start in subsequent races, left but three starters, Poquessing outstaying Oraculum in the stretch drive. The latter is a bad horse now and was soundly beaten after running a half mile.

William Shields saddled a good thing in Dr. Lee winner of the fourth race. Dr. Lee opened a big gap right after the start and was never mena Call Boy finished gamely and was easily second best. Hartford Boy was left at the post.

Animus won the closing race, running for the first time in the colors of John E. Madden, and was promptly bid up $500 above his entered price by his former owner, Albert Simons. was letting Madden down easy, as he had wagered heavily on the horse at the good price of 2 to 1. The backing of Reidmoore enabled Madden to get the price.

The weather is threatening again tonight and there probably will be a heavy track tomorrow Sixty-four bookmakers were on the lawn.

BAD STARTS MAR SANTA ANITA RACING.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 25 .- The leaving of Daruma at the post in the fourth race and the practical leaving of Lady Powell in the first, both being heavily backed, marred what otherwise was a splendid day's sport. Daruma wheeled as the barrier went up, a performance which she has been guilty of before, and Shilling was caught napping on Lady Powell.

The victory of Dominus Arvi stamped him on of the best sprinters here at the present time.

P T Chinn and his friends lost heavily on the defeat of Madeline Musgrave. The filly was in a oocket almost all the way, getting clear only in the closing strides and too late to avail her anything.

Don Domo pulled up so lame after defeating Mary F. in the first race Monday, that it is probagain. H. S. Newman, who owns the seven-year-old gelding in partnership with his father, J. F. New man, says he will send him back to the farm in

P. T. Chinn has leased Madeline Musgrave and Harry Stanhope, two-year-olds, for the rest of the eason to S. A. Clopton. Clopton will take posses sion of them at the close of the meeting.

Entry blanks for the stakes to be run at Denver this summer, have arrived at the track. A number of owners of small stables here will make nomina tions and ship there next month. The first run-up in many days occurred when W. P. Maxwell bid up Barbette from $400 to $800 and secured her. Nineteen books drew in today, most of them losing neavily. R. F. Carman will leave for New York tomorrow

The association will put seven races on from now until the close of the meeting, with the object of giving the poorer owners a chance.

TORONTO STAKES NOW READY FOR ENTRIES.

The Ontario Jockey Club announces fourteen stake races to be run during the spring meeting at Wood bine Park, entries to which will close April 22. The list of stakes is as follows:

For Two-Year-Olds.

His Race in the Crescent City Derby Had Been Better Than Accounts Showed.

New Orleans, La., March 24 .- The surprise of the racing season here was the victory of Angelus in the City Park Derby last Saturday. When the Burlew & O'Neill stable first arrived here in the fall, this gelding was remarked on as a well proportioned, racy-looking type of the thoroughbred. But his performances did not bear out that theory as he turned out to be one of the most prono in-and-outers shown here this winter. Mud appeared to be his hold and, except on one or two occasions he won his races in heavy going off by himself. On drying out, or fast tracks, however, the case was different. He defeated poor opponents and again he was beaten in poor company under favorable weight conditions, one of the most notable instances being on February 28, when the track was designated as "good," and Blagg, John Carroll and Cooney K. finished in front of him in 1:15. If of good class enough to beat a colt like Meelick, Angelus ought to have won this race pulled to a

Undoubtedly Angelus has been improving throughout the winter. His best previous race was in the Crescent City Derby, and if one analyzes that performance closely, and takes into account the weight differences in the two Derbys, it can readily be s.en that Angelus had a right to put up a hard conwith Hildreth's crack colt. City Derby Angelus trailed Chapultepec and Mee-lick into the stretch, but within striking distance. At the furlong post when Meelick drew away from Chapultepec, Notter, who rode Angelus, saw that it was all up and eased his mount, only being careful to save third money from Pinkola. In this race he carried 119 pounds, while Meelick had up 122

In the City Park Derby Meelick carried 127 and Angelus 116 pounds, thus making a difference of eight pounds in the running of the two races. careful observer whose judgment had not been warped by the previous poor showing of Angelus would have said at once that Hildreth's colt did not give the son of Sandringham an eight-pound beating at the Fair Grounds and had all the horses been of ordinary quality instead of high-class stake animals, the race been a cheap affair instead of a Derby, the smart handicappers would at once have figured on Angelus as a very potential factor in the It was not altogether unexpected that the running of the Fair Grounds race might be reversed, but not one man in a hundred who saw the contest believed that Angelus could take down first This was shown in the fact that 2 to 1 was on offer against Angelus in the betting for the place and with few takers at that.

All turfmen do not hold to the view that Meelick had staled and was not as good as he was when he won the Fair Grounds Derby. The colt looked good, he warmed up exceptionally well in his preliminary and in the race he showed that he had his usual speed, for he stuck to Chapultepec to the middle of the stretch before he began to hang out distress signals. Trainer Leary thought his charge was fit and so advised Hildreth by wire and there is little doubt but that he ran as good a race as he capable of. With a five-pound disadvantage in the weights. Dugan undoubtedly made a mistake in too closely following the pace made by Chapultepec, but that made no difference in the result. Meelick would have been beaten anyway. He is a good colt, but it must be admitted that Chapultepec and Angelus are also good ones, although the issue nonstrated the opinion expressed by the writer early in the season that the son of Gerolstein is only sprinter and that a mile is just about his limit in fast company.

Angelus is as evenly turned and as bloodlike a looking horse as one could see in a day's journey. He has a short back, yet standing over plenty of ground, long, round quarters, a good shoulder, good shoulder depth and a game, breedy-looking head and is well engaged in the eastern three year-old stakes and Meelick will have the opportunity to take another try at him early after the beginning of the eastern racing season.

THINKS EASTERN OUTLOOK FAVORABLE.

Louisville, Ky., March 25 .- M. J. Winn, general manager of the Empire City Racing Association, and also holding the same position with the New Louisville Jockey Club, has arrived here from New York. Mr. Winn has been in New York for the past month arranging for the spring meeting at getting the Harlem Railroad and the street car lines to make special preparations for handling the crowds, which will visit the track in much better time than last year.

Entries to the stakes offered by the Empire City Racing Association filled better than Mr. Winn had expected, and the best horses racing in the east this year will run in one or more races over the

When asked about the racing situation in New York state Mr. Winn said he had been too busy himself to participate in the meetings at Albany but had kept in close touch with the leaders of turf affairs, and said: "There has been a change in sentiment in New York in the last few People have finally become awakened to the fact that the passage of the Agnew-Hart bills at Albany will eventually kill the greatest of all outdoor sports."

WASHINGTON TURF PATRONS WELL PLEASED. VICTORY OF ANGELUS WAS NO FLUKE. GEMMELL FROM THE START.

GIVES WEIGHT TO CRACK SPRINTERS AND WINS ALL THE WAY.

Del Cruzador Takes the Two-Year-Old Race Like a Real Crack-Sugarmaid Defeats Cadichon-Lee Rose Top Weight in Gebhard.

Oakland, Cal., March 25 .- Gemmell, the splendid Rubicon gelding, came into his own finally at Oak-land today. With Miller in the saddle and favored with a quick start, the champion sprinter's exploit in the San Ramon Handicap was so convincing that everybody, horsemen and public alike, acclaimed him one of the best horses ever bred and raced exclusively on the Pacific coast.

Two other high-class racers in Del Cruzador and ugarmaid, were engaged during the afternoon. This brilliant trio could hold their own anywhere. For some inexplicable reason the odds against Sugarmaid were kept receding against persistent public support. The only plausible explanation for this state of affairs is that the layers, who had been losing steadily throughout the day over the monotonous successes of the favorites, resorted to heroic gambling measures and overlaid themselves on the last one in order to get out on the day.

The weather has turned cool and indications are for rain within the next few days. Eight thousand spectators enjoyed high-class sport.

Jockey Kirschbaum was suspended for three days by the starter. Sandy was fined $25 for hitting Captain John over the head with his whip in the closing strides of the juvenile race. Clifford Gilbert leaves tonight for Los Angeles to ride some Barney Schreiber's horses. He will return by Saturday next.

Roy Offutt has notified secretary Percy W. Treat that he will ship here at the close of the Santa Anita meeting.

The weights were announced today for the Geb hard Handicap to be decided next Saturday. Lee has been given top weight of 124 pounds. Rose Queen comes next with 118, Del Cruzador and of Milan are given 116 each. There are ninety-four eligibles to this rich fixture.

SEATTLE OFFERS BIG INDUCEMENTS.

The Seattle meeting of the King County Fair Association will this year show a decided improvement over the splendid meeting held last year number and class of horses contesting and in the umber of stake races offered and the daily distribution of money. It proposes this year to distribute among owners not less than $2,200 each day of the seventy-four and on every Wednesday of each week a special race, varying from $600 to $1,000 in added money, will be run at the Meadows track.

The fourteen stakes offered by the association, entries to which will close April 1, are as follows:

For Two-Year-Olds. Ladies' Plate, $1,500 guaranteed; 4 1-2 furlongs. Woodlands Handicap, $1,500 guaranteed; 5-8 mile.

For Three-Year-Olds.

Seattle Derby, $3,000 guaranteed: 1 1-4 miles For Three-Year-Olds and Over. Celebration Handicap, $2,500 guaranteed; 1 1-16

Tacoma Handicap, $2,000 guaranteed; 1 mile. "1909" Exposition Handicap, $5,000 guaranteed;

Puget Sound Handicap, $2,500 guaranteed; 2

Labor Day Handicap, $2,500 guaranteed; 1 1-8 Members' Handicap, $2,000 guaranteed;

1-8 miles. Interurban Handicap, $2,000 guaranteed; 7-8 mile. Meadows Selling Stakes, $1,500 guaranteed; 1

Alaska Handicap, $1,500 guaranteed; 1 1-8 miles. For All Ages.

King County Selling Stakes; $1,500 guaranteed; 1-2 furlongs.
Opening Handicap, $1,500 guaranteed; 3-4 mile.

The Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Handicap, to be run at the Meadows track next year during the progress of the exposition, for which it is named, will have a guaranteed cash value of $20,000. The distance the race will be one mile and a quarter. Conditions will shortly be announced and entries probably close

FILLY WITH NOTED CONNECTIONS DIES.

January 1, 1909.

Lexington, Ky., March 25.—The full sister to Highball and Ben Fleet, by Ben Strome—Strychinia, which was foaled at Dixiana Farm March 2, is dead. Major T. J. Carson is of opinion that the death of this valuable foal was due to rheumatism. This is the fifth foal of Strychinia by Ben Strome to die. The first was a bay filly foaled in 1898, then the foal of 1904, the same year Highball won the American Derby. During the past winter speedy Ben Fleet died in the east and now comes the passing of this foal. Major Carson, however, takes the matter philosophically and has again mated the mare with Ben Strome. The best work this morning at the Kentucky Association course was by the threeyear-olds Honest Boy and Skyo. They worked over a track that was not fast, the former going a half mile in 521 and the latter the same distance in 53.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

G. W. Scott expects to leave Oakland in a few days for his home in Texas. He will take his fouryear-old filly Mary Candlemas, the only horse re maining in his stable at Oakland, with him.

Samuel Ross and William Cooper, owners of the orses which formerly raced in the name of the Columbia Stable, have dropped the name and the horses are racing at Washington in the name of Mr. Ross.

Hugh Owen, who was one of the English Jockey Club starters was killed a few weeks ago by a fall in the hunting field. He had in his younger days ridden many races on the flat and across country without an accident.

Winner—B, f, by Golden Garter—Queenfisher (trained by T. Hiatt).

Went to post at 1:53. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Margie D, forced a stiff pace throughout, clung on tenaciously all of the final sixteenth under the whip and finally outstayed Auburndale. The latter, off flying, showed much speed throughout, but falled to stay under punishment. Lady Powell, all but left, was persevered with and, closing a tremendous gap, tinished fast and was easily best. Compound Interest showed speed, but tired fast in the final sixteenth. The others were always outrun. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Went to post at 2:16. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Bold, suddenly improved and always close up, had to go to the outside of the others when turning for home, but came through with a great rush in the final sixteenth and got up in the last two strides. Madeline Musgrave, in a pocket all through the final quarter, got clear when too late, but finished gamely under keen urging. Chilla forced a stiff pace for the first three furlongs, but tired in the last hundred yards. Ned Jran fell away fast when a sixteenth out. Marion Delorme showed speed, but quit badly.

Call Boy ran in improved form, finished resolutely and was easily second best. Ferrylanding ran well throughout. Alloy was in close quarters and can do better. Hartford Boy refused to break.

Winner—Ch. g. by Compute—Palmy Days (trained by M. Daly).
Went to post at 4:52. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. I centage, a rapid jumper, was much the best, led all the way and was at no time fully extend Penarris finished resolutely and outgamed Fin MacCool through the stretch. The latter is a greatly proved horse and hung on well after chasing the whner almost throughout. Alken raced well for a grone and is sure to improve. Wayside fell at the tenth fence and Bessie Kiser at the first.

Time 3:08.

Winner—B. g, by Goldfinch—Moonflower (trained by J. Fox).

Went to post at 2:57. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. Moongold, under a good ride, ran to his best form, fenced well and, saving much ground, finished and won going away. Impertinence, probably best, was taken wide most of the trip, causing him to lose much ground and tire near the end. Piller was prominent throughout and but for blundering slightly at the final jump, would have been much closer up. Buckman showed the most speed over the first six jumps, then tired. Ralph Reese showed improvement and can do much better. The others were never prominent. Scratched—73734 Mixup, 130; 73753 Woodside, 135; 73715 Roxy B., 127; 73861 Little Wally, 139.

Winner—Ch. c, by Yankee—Halo (trained by E. Stubbs).

Went to post at 3:58. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Marse Abe was away forwardly and went into an early lead but, running sluggishly, had to be aroused hard in the last furlong to shake off Brougham. The latter, going wide throughout, lost ground by it, but was in the best going, held on well in the stretch and ran a good race. Yankee Daughter, away forwardly, dropped back when taken into the worst going, but finished gamely and probably would have been dangerous on a fast track. Nigger Baby quit badly after going a good half. Inez Sister made up ground and will improve. Lady Chilton was a close contender for three furlongs, but tired. Elizabeth larwood ran a very bad race. Anne McGee disliked the going.

Scratched—(73835) Arionette, 115; 73809 Little Mose, 118.

73889 FIFTH RACE—7-8 Mile. (66928—1:26—3—87.) $600 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap. Net value to winner $550.

Winner—Ch. h. by Gorman—Kate Ayre (trained by C. N. Freeman).

Went to post at 5:11. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily: second and third driving. John McBride, showing suddenly improved form, was a forward contender for the first half and forced a fast pace, then wore Katle Powers down on the stretch turn and came away to win as his rider pleased. Creel, hard ridden and showing a disposition to bore out on the first two turns, moved up steadily and just got up in the last strides for second place. Katle Powers, favored by the going, set the early pace and appeared dangerous for a mile, but tired. Dr. McCluer showed decided lameness while going to the post and tired after going three-quarters. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

L. Stock has secured a contract on the services of the apprentice jockey Edward Joseph, who has ridden in a few races at Oakland.

Jockey Keogh will ride on the New York tracks this season for the first time. He will probably ride most of the horses Barney Schreiber will campaign in the east this summer.

Jockey "Big Bill" Knapp announces that he will buy a few horses in the near future and become an owner and trainer, since the Jockey Club has refused to give him a license to ride.

Greeno came out of the First Benning Spring Handicap race bleeding profusely from several cuts on his forelegs, which, in the opinion of his new owner, R. Angarola, will keep him in the stable during the rest of the meeting. H. S. Page, steeplechase steward for the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association during the Washington meeting, sustained a broken collarbone when Yama Christy fell with him in the fifth race at Washington on the opening day. Mr. Page expects to be able to ride again at the Belmont Park meeting.
